The performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. For performance data current to the most recent month end, please call 1-800-762-7085 or visit www.cavalanhillfunds.com.

Certain fund expenses may have been waived or reimbursed. Had waivers and reimbursements not been in effect, the performance quoted would have been lower. Currently, contractual fee waivers are in effect from December 28, 2021 through December 31, 2022. Class A Shares are subject to a 1.00% Maximum Deferred Sales Charge on shares purchased without an initial sales charge and redeemed within 12 months of purchase. Performance data does not reflect the Maximum Deferred Sales Charge. If reflected, performance quoted would be lower.

Other Cavanal Hill Funds

The Cavanal Hill Funds offer an array of equity, fixed income and money market funds for both retail and institutional markets and support a wide range of investment objectives. From conservative income to growth-oriented goals, we offer choice, flexibility and opportunity for diversification.

Investment Risks

Equity securities (stocks) are more volatile and carry more risk than other forms of investments, including investments in high-grade fixed income securities. Investments in the Fund are subject to the risks related to direct investment in real estate, such as real estate risk, regulatory risks, concentration risk, and diversification risk. Fixed income securities are subject to interest rate risks. The principal value of a bond falls when interest rates rise and rise when interest rates fall. During periods of rising interest rates, the value of a bond investment is at greater risk than during periods of stable or falling rates. High-yield bonds have a higher risk of default or other adverse credit events, but have the potential to pay higher earnings over investment-grade bonds. The higher risk of default, or the inability of the creditor to repay its debt, is the primary reason for the higher interest rates on high-yield bonds. International investing involves increased risk and volatility. Mid- and small-cap companies may be more vulnerable to adverse business or economic developments. Because an ETF charges its own fees and expenses, Fund shareholders will indirectly bear these costs. The use of leverage in an ETF can magnify any price movements, resulting in high volatility. An inverse ETF seeks to provide returns that are the opposite of the underlying referenced financial asset, index, or commodity's returns. Exposure to commodities may subject the Fund to greater volatility than investments in traditional securities.

*Lipper (as of June 30, 2022)

Lipper ratings for Expense identify a fund that has successfully managed to keep its expenses low relative to its peers and within its load structure. The Lipper ratings are subject to change every month and are based on an equal weighted average of percentile ranks for the Expense metrics over three-, five-, and ten-year periods (if applicable). The highest 20% of funds in each peer group are named Lipper Leaders with a rating of 5, the next 20% receive a rating of 4, the middle 20% are rated 3, the next 20% are rated 2, and the lowest 20% are rated 1. The Cavanal Hill Opportunistic Fund, in Lipper's Absolute Return Funds classification received the following ratings for the three-, five-, ten-year periods, respectively, for the A Shares: Expense: 5(25 funds), 5(23 funds) and 5(11 funds), for the Iv Shares: Expense: 5(25 funds), 5(23 funds) and 4(11 funds).

The Lipper Mutual Funds Average is an equally weighted average of the mutual funds within their respective Lipper classification, adjusted for reinvestment of capital gains distributions and income dividends. Lipper ratings are not intended to predict future results, and Lipper does not guarantee the accuracy of this information. More information is available at www.lipperweb.com. Important Disclosures

² The S&P 500 Index is regarded as a gauge of the U.S. equities market, this index includes 500 leading companies in leading industries of the U.S. economy. Although the S&P 500 focuses on the large-cap segment of the market, with approximately 75% coverage of U.S. equities, it is also an ideal proxy for the total market. Hedge Fund Research, Inc. (HFR) utilizes a UCITSIII compliant methodology to construct the HFRX Hedge Fund Indices. The methodology is based on defined and predetermined rules and objective criteria to select and rebalance components to maximize representation of the Hedge Fund Universe. HFRX Indices utilize state-of-the-art quantitative techniques and analysis; multi-level screening, cluster analysis, Monte-Carlo simulations and optimization techniques ensure that each Index is a pure representation of its corresponding investment focus. These indexes are unmanaged and do not reflect the deduction of the expenses associated with a mutual fund, such as investment management and fund accounting fees. The Fund's performance reflects the deduction of fees for these services, but does not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or the redemption of fund shares. Investors cannot invest directly in an index.

³ Turnover Ratio is a measure of trading activity for a rolling 12-month period represented by the percentage of a fund's assets that have changed over the course of the time period.
